

United Nations Human Rights Council,

Draft Resolution – Alfredo Trump Resolution,

Topic: Implications of Human Rights on Deportation of Immigrants under Trump's Regime,

Sponsors: United States of America, French Republic, Federal Republic of Germany,

Signatories: United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Republic of Ireland, State of Qatar, the Kingdom of Denmark, Česká republika, Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic, Kingdom of Belgium, the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, Kingdom of the Netherlands, Kingdom of Sweden, Kingdom of Norway, Republic of Turkey,

Recognizing the sovereign right of every nation to regulate its immigration policies under the framework of international law,

Affirming the importance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), the 1951 Refugee Convention, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), and the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) in governing humane treatment of migrants and deportees,

Recalling General Comment No. 6 of the Committee on the Rights of the Child, which discourages criminalization of child migration status,

Concerned about past instances of family separations, detention of minors, and lack of access to asylum proceedings in various states,

Emphasizing the need for clarity in distinguishing between illegal immigration, asylum-seeking, and human trafficking,

Reiterating that enforcement of deportation must not undermine basic human rights, regardless of nationality or legal status,

Acknowledging that deportation policies must strike a balance between national security, legal sovereignty, and humanitarian obligations,

1. Encourages all Member States to review deportation processes to ensure full compliance with,
 - A) the principle of non-refoulement,
 - B) the right to a fair trial and legal representation, and
 - C) access to asylum and humanitarian protection where applicable;

2. Urges the establishment of National Immigration Oversight Committees in each state, composed of legal, humanitarian, and child welfare experts, to review and advise on deportation decisions involving,
 - A) unaccompanied minors,
 - B) families with children, and
 - C) victims of human trafficking;
3. Calls for the creation of a UNHRC-led Voluntary Framework for,
 - A) data sharing on deportation statistics,
 - B) best practices for humane removals,
 - C) transparent reporting of child and family detentions;
4. Recommends that nations distinguish between,
 - A) economic migrants,
 - B) asylum seekers, and
 - C) national security risks, and avoid blanket deportation policies that fail to assess individual needs;
5. Supports increased collaboration with UN bodies (UNHCR, UNICEF, IOM) to provide,
 - A) psychological support for deported minors,
 - B) post-deportation integration in countries of origin,
 - C) monitoring mechanisms for safety of returnees;
6. Suggests the periodic review of detention and deportation laws by Member States to ensure they align with updated international human rights frameworks;
7. Calls upon states to implement training programs for border officials and immigration officers on:
 - A) child rights,
 - B) trauma-informed processing, and
 - C) legal safeguards during deportation enforcement;
8. Requests the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) to prepare an annual Global Deportation Compliance Report, highlighting,
 - A) nations adhering to international standards,

B) critical gaps, and

C) progress in protection of vulnerable migrant populations;

9. Asserts the need to protect national sovereignty while collectively upholding global human dignity, with deportation policies that are lawful, fair, and humane;
10. Calls upon Member States to refrain from the use of language and rhetoric that stigmatizes immigrants and their children, in line with the principles of dignity and non-discrimination as enshrined in Article 2 of the CRC;
11. Recommends the establishment of bilateral return agreements between host countries and countries of origin, which include,

A) Human rights safeguards,

B) Child protection clauses,

C) Monitoring mechanisms post-return;

12. Encourages the use of alternatives to detention for families and children, including community-based shelters, supervised release programs, and case management systems;
13. Urges all states to ensure that immigration laws are harmonized with child protection laws, so that immigration status does not override the best interests of the child;
14. Supports regional cooperation through bodies such as the African Union, European Union, ASEAN, and OAS to manage deportation and reintegration programs in a manner compliant with international law;
15. Calls for the creation of a UNHRC Special Rapporteur on Deportation and Human Rights, tasked with monitoring violations and advising states on aligning enforcement with global human rights standards;
16. Encourages the development of standard operating procedures (SOPs) for deportation involving minors, including,
 - A) Medical screenings,
 - B) Psychological evaluations, and
 - C) Family tracing prior to removal;
17. Appeals to international financial institutions and donor countries to provide technical assistance and funding to help states,
 - A) Modernize deportation infrastructure,
 - B) Train immigration officers, and
 - C) Build child-friendly enforcement systems;
18. Requests that states adopt reintegration programs for deported minors and families, in partnership with NGOs, focusing on,
 - A) Education access,
 - B) Social inclusion, and
 - C) Prevention of re-trafficking;

19. Emphasizes the importance of regular peer-review mechanisms under the UNHRC Universal Periodic Review (UPR) process to assess how countries uphold human rights in deportation practices;
20. Recommends the creation of a Global Reintegration Fund to support returnees with shelter, psychological support, and employment opportunities;
21. Holds deporting states legally accountable for the safety and treatment of individuals after return, in line with international human rights obligations;
22. Calls for the creation of secure digital identities for migrant children, linked to their family units and managed by neutral bodies such as the UN or the Red Cross.
23. Advocates for the institutional strengthening of the UNHRC mandate to oversee deportation procedures by;

- A) Establishing a Special Rapporteur role,
- B) Mainstreaming deportation data in UPR cycles,
- C) Setting up an early-warning network with UNHCR,
- D) Initiating frameworks for soft law instruments;

24. Decides to remain seized of the matter.
